SO, WHAT DID YOU DO ABOUT IT

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 192 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Some are calling it the Ascension, the 3D to 4D shift (D for either dimension or density), the Event, or a shift in vibrational level of reality. Most of the Universe is watching us now, not only because of this reality, but also because all of their futures are in our hands as we are in a position to save this entire Universe from destruction. What is about to happen here is the most exciting thing to have ever happened in the history of the Universe. While I am irritated by fiction, I have found that the truth is this dramatic. In order to help people see why I believe much, but certainly not all, of what is being discussed by many today, I felt it best to open my life to the reader so that you can see how my awakening has happened and judge for yourselves. Several times along the way, I've been so upset by what I have found that I almost abandoned this project, only to find that these horrible facts fit neatly into the picture already formed. I, Kevin Bizzell, was two weeks into Indiana University's Graduate School of Mathematics when I was hit by a drunk driver and left in a coma, during which time I experienced my own death for thirteen days. Not having lived a life with God as my focus, I imagined myself into a fictional reality, Hell if you will, but then was rescued by a Hindu saint with whom I spent several days. When I returned to my body, I remembered enough from my Metaphysics of Existence class that I was able to clearly discern that everything...
