I have never done anything for which I am more willing to be solely responsible; but, having commenced without my name, i have thought it most suitable to the modesty I ought to observe, to let it still appear in that form. To ministers of the Gospel of every name, I would make an earnest appeal. You hold an office greatly and deservedly honoured; but more honoured in its origin than men can honour it. These Societies have your favour, and could not long exist without it. You speak for them; you buy their books, and you take up contributions of charity for them. I ask you to consider the case, and what I have stated. It is certain that the public pays more for what charity does than the same would cost when produced by individual means and enterprise; and that it is, therefore, a bad economy of sacred funds. It is certain that such use of these funds does a wrong to individuals engaged in this branch of business, and drives a large amount of capital out of it, and causes it to be invested in publishing injurious books. This is a great and growing evil. Far too many religious books and children s books are published by these societies. This results from...
