Lamplighters International, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 158 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Esther, born in godless ancient Persia, was chosen to marry a pagan king. As part of the king s vast harem, Esther must have feared she was destined to a life of loneliness and emptiness. Little did she know that God was preparing her to fill a critical role in Israel s history. God used Esther to influence the king, saving her people from annihilation. This study examines how God acts as the Great Mover in history to accomplish His will. As you study this gripping saga, you ll discover how God works to protect and guide His people - wherever they live. This is an exciting study on faith and faithfulness. Lesson titles include: A New Queen If I Perish, I Perish How the Mighty are Fallen The Providence of God.
