Left-handed

By Galassi, Jonathan

Knopf, 2013. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary:

"Heartbreaking . . . Galassi navigates currents of regret and desire in this collection. In the book's opening cycle of poems, the speaker anticipates and laments the end of a long relationship. Later, adoration is the most significant theme. Exhortations to find meaning in the present echo urgently throughout, perhaps most memorably in "The Feast" wherein the author commands, "Feast yourself on beauty/while you can,/the useless/thing." Galassi's candor is one of the collection's strengths." -- The New Yorker "A raw and melancholic series of poems--aching, and on fire." --Nathalie Handal, Guernica "[Galassi is] the noted translator of six books of Italian poetry. Love poems and epistolary expressions are where poetry began. Galassi combines these adventures into consistently sharp and beautiful declarations. Why we do not put the book down is because of the way the poems draw you in and that has something to do with the esthetic on the page. Many times the poems are shaped like movement and loss. If ever we wanted a lesson on what a line length does for a thought or emotion, this book is it. Beautifully spun,...
